

Mr. Aminur Rahman, Khosru was born on 1st August 1955 in Khulna, Bangladesh in an educated and respectable family. Father Mr. MM. Kashem was a scholar who stood first in all through his education and was Master in Commerce and Bachelor in law.

Aminur Rahman, Khosru passed SSC in the year of 1970, and was a student of Khulna St. Joseph's High school. Father MM Kashem was a govt. servant and was transferred from Khulna to Satkhira in 1970.

After passing SSC exam Mr. Aminur Rahman, Khosru took admission in the Satkhira college. From 1969 Aminur Rahman was active in politics and took the membership of the then East Pakistan Student League. In the year of 1971 he was an active member of Satkhira student league and was a member of Student action committee and took part in the liberation war.

Mr. Aminur Rahman was Naval commando was the best among among all who were trained in Pallasy Camp. Due to his outstanding performances in training he was selected as the Commander of Mongla Port of Operation Jackpot and under his command 6 Ships were destroyed in Port on 15th August 1971. www.operation jackpot part 1& part 2. Indian Defence Forum. www.wikipedia \(Bangla\). After the Liberation war Mr. Aminur Rahman joined in his college and passed HSC examination and studied medicine for one year in the Rajshahi Medical college and left the medicine studies and also admitted in the Khulna Engineering college. In 1974, he also left the engineering college and took admission in Khulna Shahid Suhrawardy college in Bachelor degree in Arts faculty. During this time, he was active in politics and was general Secretary of Sathira Student League District committee. After the assassination of Bangabandhu Sk. Mujibur Rahman Mr. Aminur Rahman, Khosru was placed before the wanted list of Military Govt of Bangladesh. In order to save his life he had to escape from his house and took shelter in many districts in Bangladesh. In 1977 he appeared in the BA Examination under Rajshahi Board and finding no other alternative to save his life he left Bangladesh and migrated to Germany. In 1980 he joined University of Giessen in the Business Management Faculty to do the then Master course which was known as Diplom in Germany. He studied there 2 Semester in Giessen University in Germany and got admitted in the United College of Business in Hollywood, California and went to USA for higher studies in the Business Management field and Graduated from United college of Business in the year of 1984 and earned Master's degree in management. Since 1984 to 1994 Mr. Aminur Rahman was the Managing Director of Sarah Tex, Germany. In 1994 he established his own computerised printing factory in Mirpur and successfully did the Textile Printing Business until 2003 in Bangladesh. Due to family reasons he returned back to Germany in 2003 and joined SN Textile GmbH as Sales Director of Europe. Mr. Aminur Rahman, Khosru is founder member of German Awami League and was President of German Awami League from 1984 to 1994 and while living in Bangladesh he maintained close ties with German Awami League and was an adviser of German Awami League.

Since 2009 he is the Chief Adviser of the German Awami League until 2017 and from 2017 he is Chief Patron of German Awami League. He is the President of World anti terrorism organisation (www.wato-international.org)

Since 2022 he is President of all European Freedom Fighters Association, (www.euromukti.org) Beside this Mr. Aminur Rahman Khosru is adviser of many social and NGO in Germany.

